As we go into winter we are seeing an increase in the spread of Covid, flu, colds, RSV and other viruses. To help decrease the spread of germs, wear a mask, wash your hands and distance yourself from others where you can, particularly in enclosed, crowded spaces.

COVID tests are available for free again using this link: <https://www.covid.gov/tests>

Pulpit Supply in January

Services will be held at Beulah at 9:30 am and Monterey at 11:15 am on each of the following Sundays.

The Beulah service will be live-streamed.

We are blessed to be welcoming back to the pulpit:

- January 14, 2024 Wade Meyers
- January 21, 2024 Adam White
- January 28, 2024 David Hindman

INCLEMENT WEATHER PROCEDURE - There is always the possibility of inclement weather on a Sunday morning in the winter. Early forecasts even predict an accumulating snow in Highland this weekend.

A team is in place that will make the decision to cancel church at both locations, and in that event we will send out an email blast. It will also be on the radio. It may have to be an early decision if a supply minister is coming across the mountains and needs to be at Beulah by 9:30. If this plan changes, you will get updated information

MONTEREY NEWS

There will be a congregational meeting immediately following the worship service January 28th to elect elders, give program reports, and pass two bylaws.

Beulah hosted a youth led worship service on December 10. Amy Frayer, along with daughter Hannah, played Mary at two different ages, telling the nativity story using Mary's voice. It was a meaningful service and everyone who participated did a wonder job bringing characters to life.
